

Meet Our Team Philanthropy and Community Involvement

Tammy Tumbling

Director
Philanthropy and Community Involvement

Tammy provides strategic oversight for Edison's philanthropic and community involvement activities. Her responsibilities include managing a $16.6 million corporate giving budget, and establishing and maintaining strategic partnerships with organizations in the community. Tammy also provides strategic oversight and direction on funding community-based programs, establishing community partnerships, workplace giving, in-kind donations, employee volunteerism and scholarship programs.

Virginia Valencia

Manager
Employee Engagement, Workplace Giving and Volunteerism virginia.valencia@sce.com

Virginia is responsible for Edison's Employee Giving Programs, including an annual workplace giving drive of $4 million, a matching gifts, and corporate-sponsored volunteer events that generated 250,000+ volunteer hours last year.

Roop Sumal

Senior Grant Manager
edison.gifts@sce.com

Roop is responsible for managing Edison's philanthropic efforts and grant-making activities, with a focus on community grants, sponsorships and in-kind donations focused on Education, the Environment, and the Underserved (ethnic groups, women, disabled, seniors, low-income, LGBT) within Edison's areas of operation.

Edward Robinson

Manager
Community Partnerships
edward.robinson@sce.com

Ed and his team are responsible for developing, maintaining, and enhancing strategic partnerships in the African American, Asian American, Latino, and underserved communities of our region, including faith-based groups.

Community Liaisons are as follows:

Qiana Charles

African American & Native American Community Outreach
qiana.charles@sce.com

Fernando De Necochea

Latino Community Outreach
fernando.denecochea@sce.com

Daphne Ng

Asian & Pacific Islander Community Outreach
daphne.ng@sce.com